

LOCAL NAVIGATION NOTICE

GIPPSLAND PORTS

The following navigation warning is published for general information.

AUSTRALIA - VICTORIA

No. 020/2014

PORT OF GIPPSLAND LAKES

LATROBE RIVER – HAZARD TO NAVIGATION

DATE: 20 August 2014

DETAILS: Mariners are advised that a large river gum has been uprooted from the bank of the Latrobe River and is protruding approximately 40 metres into the river and partially obstructing the fairway. The hazard is located approximately 9 kilometers upstream of the river mouth in GPS position;
38° 08.409' South
147° 09.044' East WGS84 Datum.

A yellow conical buoy exhibiting a yellow flashing light with characteristics Fl.Y 4s has been deployed adjacent to the fallen tree

The fallen tree has been reported to relevant authorities

Mariners are advised to take extra precaution when navigating in this area of the Latrobe River which is subject to a 10 knot speed restriction.

PUBLICATIONS

AFFECTED: Gippsland Lakes Boating Guide

FURTHER NOTICE: A further notice will be issued.

CAPT. BEVIS HAYWARD
HARBOUR MASTER